

Meeting

Date: 22 January 2021

Time: 5.00 p.m. Malaysian Time

The MCCA is an organisation that provides services to Corporate Counsel being:

1. any corporate or legal counsel who holds a law degree;
2. corporate or legal counsel working in government or public institutions, private corporations and other entities;
3. any corporate or legal counsel in any geographical area globally; and
4. such other persons engaged in the provision of legal, contract management, administration, corporate secretarial services, or other related activities, provided they fulfil the rest of the "Corporate Counsel" criteria referred to above.

Certain persons are excluded including members of the Malaysian Bar or any professional legal practice.

The MCCA is scheduling a Zoom meeting of interested persons who meet the description above in order to discuss the role of the MCCA in the post COVID-19 age. It is not necessary to be a member of the MCCA. The meeting will cover the services to be provided to Corporate Counsel by the association and any other matters of interest to the group.

Do join us and please also inform your friends and colleagues who may be interested.

Please RSVP to one of the persons below setting out any issues that you would like to address at the meeting. The Agenda and details of the Zoom call will be provided to those who have expressed their interest.

Thavakumar Kandiahpillai: thavakumar@hotmail.com

Kenneth Foo: foopohkhean@gmail.com

Revantha Sinnetamby: revantha10@gmail.com